SURVEY OF 'SHORT CUT' ROUTE IN HANCOCK CO. BEGUN BY HIGHWAY DEPT

Louisiana's Great Short Cut Route to Enter Hancock County By Way of Pearlington—Two Routes of Entry To Bay St. Louis From Pearlington.

L. W. Brown, chief engineer highway commission of Mississippi, is in Bay St. Louis, registered at the Hotel Weston, and accompanied by a corps of surveyors who are actively engaged in the work of making preliminary surveys. There is no more doubt about building the short cut. The work has begun on both sides and within the year completion of the long-looked for project will have been accomplished.

From Jack-on, headquarters of the Highway Commission in Mississippi comes the following report:

Definite assurance was given that Mississippi would construct the "short cut" on U. S. Highway No. 90, Hancock county, to tie in with Louisiana's proposed "airline route" of the state coast from funds made available in the federal relief program now under way.

E. D. Kenna, director of the state highway department, disclosed that survey crews were at work on the Hancock project, designed to cut considerable mileage from the present Old Spanish Trail route between New Orleans and the coast.

The short cut will leave the present Highway No. 90 at a point still to be determined and hit the state line near Pearlington. There it will meet to let two projects in the $4. tentatively laid out.

Many Proposals Received. The State Highway Commission met to let two projects in the $4. 320,000 program of federal relief. More than a score of bids were received and read at the new capitol on the two projects.

Copiah county 8.69 miles paving on U. S. Highway 51 between Wesson and Hattiesburg. Forrest, Stone counties, 13.48 miles paving on U. S. Highway 49 between Hattiesburg and Wiggins.

Contract awards would not be made until after the bids have been approved by the district office of the United States bureau of public roads. It was a matter of speculation as to when the division office will act, Kenna said. Meanwhile, no construction on those projects will begin.

Low bidders on the asphaltic type of pavement advertised included the Hartman-Clark Company, Peoria Ill., and Dunn Construction Company, Jackson. The project in Forrest and Stone counties found the Dunn Company bidding $220,391.49 as against $249,660.11 for the Hartman-Clark Company. On the Copiah county project the low bid was $134,923.76.

Two Routes to be Used. Consummation of the Gulf Coast project will end a long period of negotiations between Louisiana and Mississippi highway officials and the federal bureau of public roads. At a New Orleans conference more than a year ago, the Mississippi commission agreed to blacktop the present route, which enters Louisiana far to the north of Pearlington via Tiger-ville. This work, which was a requisite to Louisiana formulating plans for her short route, has been com-

COLUMBUS DAY TO BE OBSERVED

Coast Councils Knights of Columbus Will Broadcast Program for Golden Anniversary.

On Friday, October 12th, Columbus Day, Knights of Columbus will celebrate their golden anniversary. From a modest beginning at New Haven Conn., in the year 1882, this organization has grown with gigantic strides until now it numbers about 600,000 men carrying insurance to the amount of $300,000,000. The spirit of fraternity contained in all the pages of its history adds glory to the order. The service it rendered during the world war and during every major disaster in this country makes membership in this order a signal honor.

In order to celebrate the golden anniversary of its service to God, to country and to fellow man, the Knights of Columbus of the Coast Councils will give a special program over Station W. G. C. M. at Gulfport, Friday, October 12, between the hours of 8 and 9 P. M.

A tentative program follows: Male Quartet from Biloxi Council, "We are the Boys of the K. C." Address—"Fifty Years With the Knights of Columbus" by State Deputy A. G. Favre of Bay St. Louis. Violin Solo—Gulfport Council. Impersonation by Arthur Seafide, Bay St. Louis.

Vocal Solo—Gulfport Council. Recital—"Trimmings of the Rosary" by Jos. M. Ross, Pascagoula, Miss. Finale—Biloxi Quartet.

pleted from Bay St. Louis to the state line.

The route will remain in service, under tentative plans, offering two routes of entry to Bay St. Louis, from Pearlington and from the north. Notices have been posted at Bay St. Louis inviting objections if any, to plans for bridging certain streams necessary in the work, Kenna said.

A Pass Christian report says that Mrs. Rose Knost and members of her family have been called to New Orleans, by the serious illness of Mrs. Knost daughter, Miss Jeanne Knost, who was taken to Touro Infirmary several weeks ago. Her condition is reported critical.

—The Echo is pleased to learn of the continued improvement of Dr. A. R. Robinson. The Pass Christian Tarpon says, "The Doctor is looking fine and is in excellent spirit and his improved condition is a source of much gratification and pleasure, not only to his relatives, but as well to his friends here and elsewhere."

—House guests for the week-end at the home of Mrs. E. J. Leonhard on the North Beach included Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Thrifley and Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Leonhard and little daughter, who made the trip to and from New Orleans by motor. Mrs. Leonhard returning to the big city Monday after attending the regular monthly meeting of the King's Daughters that afternoon.

UNEMPLOYMENT SURVEY.

The unemployment survey in Hancock county which has been made the past few weeks under the direction of the board of supervisors with A. G. Favre, clerk, in charge, has been completed and the board at its meeting this week has been engaged in classifying the applications. Approximately 1500 applications have been made. When this work is finished the requests will be forwarded to Jackson to be included in Governor Conner's request for Mississippi's part in the national unemployment relief funds.

ROTARY CLUB SPEAKER.

Bay St. Louis Rotary Club returned to Hotel Weston this week and will meet in privacy at the sun parlor, as formerly.

Wednesday's meeting was noted for its attendance record of one hundred per cent and the life and pep which seems to increase interest in this well known local business and professional men's club.

Rev. Wm. J. Leech, of Pass Christian, also Rotarian, recently returned from a visit to his former home place, Galway, Ireland, was guest speaker and spoke of the trip across the ocean and of conditions in Ireland, also of political and economic conditions existing between Ireland and England giving a inside story never published.

An interesting and engaging speaker, Father Leech's address was seemingly all too short, however and nevertheless thoroughly enjoyable and of constructive value to his listeners. Attorney Lucien M. Gex of Bay St. Louis will address the Club next Wednesday.

TO ELECT OFFICERS

The American Legion will hold its meeting Thursday night, 7:30 of this week, where officers for the ensuing year will be elected:

HANCOCK TEACHERS' MEETING

Unusually Large Attendance Noted—Mr. Hemphill Speaks—Echo P-T. A. Edition Discussed.

Hancock County Teachers' Association met at Central School building in Bay St. Louis, Saturday, Oct. 2. The chairman, Mr. Dimpkin of Kiln, called the meeting to order at 10:30 A. M.

After the invocation by Mr. Clayton Smith the audience was entertained with special music by the Misses Neacise from Kiln High School.

The chairman announced that Mr. Darby could not be with the group and introduced Mr. Kempmill of Perkinston Junior College and for about fifty minutes the teachers listened to a splendid address on "Teacher Responsibility."

Mr. Hemphill is an old friend and teacher in Hancock county, having served for several terms as principal of Waveland school. The teachers were glad to see him.

Mr. Ingram urged the teachers to pay their dues to the State Association and to be 100 per cent again this year. Mrs. C. C. McDonald explained the purpose of the P-T. A. campaign and the special issue of the Sea Coast Echo for the benefit of the county P-T. A. work.

County Supt. McQueen made some interesting announcements concerning county school work, and as the session was longer than usual adjourned without the department meetings.

The program for these meetings will be continued and the same leaders for these subjects under discussion will have charge at the meeting in December.

WORK ON COURT HOUSE

Work of repairing the court house began Monday of last week and will take about two months to finish. Ed Osbourne is the contractor. The board of supervisors ordered the work done and let the contract in September. General repair to roof, building and portions of the foundation and painting are included in the contract. Contractor Osbourne of Bay St. Louis is well known and experienced and the work will be well carried out.

MISSISSIPPI PARENT-TEACHER DAY TO BE OBSERVED OCTOBER 11

At Meeting to be Held by Local Organization at Central School Bldg.

The October meeting of Mississippi Parent Teachers' Association of Central School will be held at the school auditorium, on Tuesday, October 11, at 3 P. M.

The program will be as follows: Opening—Mrs. Ship. Business—Mrs. Logan, president. President's Message—Mrs. Phillips. Fundamentals of Nutrition.

Throughout the state of Mississippi during the week of October 16-22, the Parent Teacher Association are seeking to arouse every community to a sense of its responsibility to the children of Mississippi. In such an organization as the Parent Teacher Association, with intelligent direction, the public may become informed and instructed in the real meaning of cooperation in the training of children. This organization is an auxiliary of every up-to-date and modern school. Teachers look to the P-T. A. to help them in every phase of their work. Thro' it the teacher is given an opportunity to know the parents of her pupils and to understand the pupil better from acquaintance with the parents and the child's home life. Encouragement and inspiration is gained from the knowledge that the parents are "back of" the teacher and any program that the school is trying to put over.

FORMER BAY RESIDENT AND OFFICIAL FOUND DEAD; BULLET IN HEART

Robert W. Taylor, Residing in New Orleans, Victim of Fatal Pistol Shot Near Home at Early Hour Tuesday.

Robert W. Taylor, former resident of Bay St. Louis, at one time member of Board of Mayor and Aldermen and author of "R. W. Taylor School" and building, this city, and a world-war veteran, aged 48, residing at 8001 Hickory Street, New Orleans was found dead at 1:50 o'clock Tuesday morning in front of the garage in the rear of the home of George R. Schwab, 8005, Hickory street, with a bullet shot through his heart.

Taylor rented the Schwab garage. Several feet away, inside the garage was found a .38 caliber revolver with five loaded cartridges and one recently exploded. Alongside his automobile, which he had driven into the garage was found Taylor's wallet and hat. The wallet contained only $2.

Suicide suggested, police nevertheless were running out several details which had a tendency to conflict with the suicide theory. For instance, a check for $393.10 which he received three hours before from George O'Dwyer, operator of the Original Southport Inn, was missing.

Taylor and his wife had been at a bridge party earlier in the night. After taking Mrs. Taylor home at 11 o'clock Monday night, he went to the Southport Inn to collect an ice bill and was given the check, O'Dwyer and employees of his establishment there only a few minutes. So that police are puzzled as to how and where he spent the time between 11 p. m. and 1:50 a. m.

Taylor is survived by his widow and five children, ranging in ages from 2 to 13 years.

Mrs. Taylor, who knew nothing of her husband's death until awakened by neighbors, said that she and her husband left their home at 8 o'clock Monday evening and went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton J. Hargis at 7318 Birch street, where they played bridge.

Detectives Wednesday night were still trying to trace a check for $393.10 drawn to the Carrollton branch of Whitney Banks, and made payable to the Tulane Ice Company, and until that check is accounted for the question as to the circumstance or motive of Mr. Taylor's death will remain unsolved.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ELECTS NEW DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Past Year Shows One of Activity and Accomplishment In Spite of Dormant Conditions and Dearth of Projects.

MUST VOTE FOR TWO SATURDAY

City Executive Committee Adopts Ruling That Voter Must Vote For Two Commissioners

At a special meeting of members of the City Democratic Executive Commission a resolution was unanimously adopted that any qualified voter voting for only one commissioner on a ticket and not voting for two the ballot would be void and not counted.

In other words one must vote for one name for mayor and must vote for two names for commissioners. The "one shot" voting will not be recognized. Voters will take notice accordingly and not lose their ballot. The ticket carries the names of five for mayoralty and six commissioners. Over the list of candidates for mayor appears the line in parenthesis (vote for one.)

Over the names of six candidates for commissioner appears the line of (vote for two). Voting for one commissioner only and not voting for two will invalidate the ticket.

Coast Press Club Hears Address By Advertising Authority

(From Gulfport Herald)

E. T. Gunalach, president of the Gunalach Advertising Agency of Chicago, was the guest speaker Monday night at the Coast Press Club at its October meeting held in the gold room of the Hotel Markham, Gulfport, as a dinner session, with Miss Mary Lena Fentress of the Fentress Printing Company as hostess. Mr. Gunalach is on the Coast for a combined business and pleasure trip. He is the author of several books on advertising. His talk dealt with advertising as affecting the county weekly, especially related to securing foreign advertising.

Chas. G. Moreau, Bay St. Louis, president of the club, presided. In 1935 the National Editorial Association will hold its 50th anniversary meeting in New Orleans, in the city where the organization was formed. Plans are being formulated by the Coast Press Club to have delegates to this meeting spend two days on the Coast. Clayton Rand of Gulfport is vice-chairman of the association.

Next month's meeting will be at Bay St. Louis with dinner at the Hotel Weston. Preceding the meeting Mr. and Mrs. Moreau will entertain with an informal reception at their home. At dinner the table was centered with a bowl of red dahlias and presented to Miss Fentress. Members present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. G. Moreau, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Elliott, Bay St. Louis; Mrs. Mary Lena Fentress, Rev. P. S. Dodge, Clayton Rand, Ralph Brash and Ed Lipscomb.

—The Red Star Fish Market, owned and operated by Messrs. Colson, have opened a new department where raw oysters are opened and served patrons on the shell, fresh from the Gulf reefs. The place is patronized by ladies and gentlemen and proving popular, as an increased patronage is evidenced from day to day. Messrs. Colson are commended for their enterprise.

A numerous-attended annual meeting of Hancock County and Bay St. Louis Chamber of Commerce was held at the organization's headquarters in this city Tuesday night, when ballots for sixteen directors were tabulated and the results announced.

Two groups were elected, eight for one year and eight for two years, running concurrently.

To serve two years, receiving highest number of votes are, in official order, Chas. G. Moreau, Jos. O. Mauffray, Dr. Jas. A. Evans, George R. Rea, Walter J. Gex, Jr., Emile J. Gex, Dr. C. L. Horton, Leo W. Seal. To serve one year, C. C. McDonald, Emilio Cue, Harry C. Glover, Mrs. E. J. Leonhard, Owen Crawford, Mayor Charles Traub, Sr., W. L. Bourgeois, E. J. Arceneaux.

Officers for New Year. Officers to serve for the new year were elected at a meeting presided over by Joseph R. Scharff, as chairman and Mrs. M. Juden secretary. The result of the voting was announced, viz:

President—Chas. G. Moreau. Vice Presidents—Jos. O. Mauffray, Henry W. Osinach. Treasurer—Dr. Jas. A. Evans. Secretary—Mrs. M. Juden.

The re-election of Mrs. Juden as secretary was the subject of the most favorable comment and the success of her services was announced with a spirit of unanimity.

The Executive Committee composed of five members, to be appointed by the president, it was announced, would be appointed in vacation.

Reports of activities of the Chamber of Commerce were reported and the fact was revealed that many smaller accomplishments had resulted. The two great objectives of the year, said the president, in a talk, were the short cut route and hard-surfacing of the Old Spanish Trail. No meeting was held the past twelve-month period without the subject discussed. Hard-surfacing the O. S. T. in Hancock County is finished, with the cooperation of the State Highway Department, Commissioner Thames especially espousing the project. The Chamber of Commerce was also assisted by the Board of Supervisors in eliciting the interest and co-operation of the Highway department and the board of Mayor and Commissioners of the city for financial support as well as such assistance from the Board of Supervisors.

As to the short-cut much satisfaction was expressed from the fact that this work has been announced officially as having started and that a force of men were working respectively both on the Louisiana and Mississippi side.

The Chamber of Commerce means much for this section and it serves to such purpose as no other organized agency could, serving to assist officials, individuals and all projects and enterprise announced and endorsed. This activity over the year has been in view of the fact conditions have been dormant because of the depression; that there has been a dearth of projects and enterprise that might have been proposed and accomplished if it were not for the lack of confidence and funds.

The outlook for the new year, however, is bright and promising.

SHORT CUT PROJECT.

FROM our news columns it is noted no time was lost in "getting busy" putting over the "short cut" from New Orleans to the Gulf Coast. Louisiana announced last week it was ready and had inaugurated preliminaries for building of the proposed auto route.

This week from Jackson the announcement is given to the press that Mississippi Highway Department has already a force of engineers and assistants in Hancock county making preliminary surveys and the work is well under way.

There will be two outlets from Pearlinton to that point where the route will enter Bay St. Louis—one connecting the Old Spanish Trail to the rear and the other forming point of contact back and through Lake Shore to the Waveland and Bay St. Louis beach.

That these things have come to pass and the "short cut" route now is only a matter of time, is hard to realize. It appears to be some fond dream about to materialize and consequently and subsequently our people are jubilant. The same might be said of the people of New Orleans who are fond of this Gulf Coast, who come here for recreation, health and pleasure; who are wont to call it home since so many summer here.

We have not only much to be grateful for but much to anticipate and in the last analysis to be thankful for. It was a long and arduous endeavor. Its betterments will be enjoyed all the more.

A HERO OF PEACE.

THE world owes more to heroes of peace than the average citizen is apt to acknowledge. Students are regaled with the exploits of the warrior whose services are exaggerated while the bravery of men who take personal risks in the ordinary course of a life of service to mankind are often ignored entirely.

This is emphasized by the news that Dr. Walter B. Stewart, Jr., of Atlantic City, New Jersey, has been stricken with infantile paralysis. The doctor had been working day and night, using every means known to medical science to prevent after-effects of this terrible disease in some 33 children under his care in a municipal hospital. Associates express the belief that he had been weakened by the intensity of his efforts to check the disease in the children.

As this is written, the doctor is reported "holding his own." Certainly the well wishes of all those who read of his misfortune should be with him in his sufferings. The dangers, casually accepted by medical men in their fight on disease, are often over-looked by most of us until some doctor is stricken.

It is about time that we realign our appraisal of men in service in order to render justice to doctors of unadvertised bravery and scientific skill.

THREE WHITE MICE.

IN a school house in Illinois a science teacher used three white mice in an experiment. By giving them a diet which did not include vegetable matter she wanted to show her pupils the effects of unbalanced and unscientific feeding.

However, the story of the demonstration received considerable advertisement, whereupon, a number of sentimental and sympathetic people became indignant over the cruelty to these three white mice and raised a great disturbance to have the experiment discontinued.

The incident shows the power of advertisement. We venture the assertion that within a few miles of these indignant protestants there were unknown families of children suffering daily from insufficient food, yet, because it is an every day problem, not particularly brought to the attention of other folks, these starving children get less attention than the starving mice.

Bay St. Louis is your town; back it to the limit with your entire support.

Millions of Americans who turned down hard work in 1929 would like a chance at it this fall.

The campaign in nutshell: All Republicans say Hoover will win; all Democrats say Roosevelt will win.

You are not asking us, but, just the same, prosperity will begin again on the farms, the same place where it left us.

There are people in Bay St. Louis who didn't know what an automobile looked like 25 years ago who are hardly able to walk now.

Now that they have a committee ready to study the problems of the railroads, why not get one to look into the troubles of the average farmer?

Successful business men know the value of advertising. The Echo is the economical medium in Bay St. Louis and it gets results.

The public seems determined to end extravagance in government. If they will now turn their attention to the extortion of crime and do something about it, they will save some more money.

ROBERT WESLEY TAYLOR.

THE tragic end of Robert Wesley Taylor, former Bay St. Louis resident at New Orleans at an early hour Tuesday morning near his home in that city, removes a man who had lived in this section for over a decade of years and had taken his part in every activity calculated for the uplift and general welfare of the city and its people.

Mr. Taylor served the community in various positions of honor and trust and perhaps is better known as having served as a member of the city council over a period extending from 1914 to 1917. It was during this time that he created the movement to build a city school in Ward 1, declaring that many patrons resided in that section of the city and small children lived entirely too far away from central school. The school was built and has well proven the usefulness its origin claimed. It serves today a large number of younger children and is one of the best of the various ones in the city. The "R. W. Taylor" School really serves as a monument.

When war was declared Mr. Taylor at once offered his service and left Bay St. Louis for San Antonio, Texas, where he at once entered the training camp for lieutenantancy and as such served in the war.

It was his fine executive ability, the fact that he was a handler of men that he filled his post and discharged his duties to the satisfaction of all concerned.

"Bob" Taylor, as his friends affectionately called him, was popular with all who knew him. His friends were where ever he was known and the news of his tragic passing away was received here, his former home town with more than ordinary grief and formal sorrow. He was an ideal citizen, a true friend and to his family his very all. Although gone, he will not be forgotten. Those who knew him will ever cherish his memory and will miss that splendid disposition for which he was known and esteemed, in addition to his up and doing.

BAY ST. LOUIS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

ANNUAL meeting of Bay St. Louis and Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, held one evening this week, was not only numerously attended but the prevailing spirit was such as to imbue every member with that urge to further carry on and do.

Organized some seven years ago, the organization has proven one of excellent results; it has taken its position in the affairs and betterment of our men and women and public in general. The Chamber of Commerce has proven a veritable clearing house for all that passes through the affairs of city and county that counts for the public good.

While it is regretted that certain business people are not associated with the organization, as was discussed at this particular meeting, the fact remains that the larger number do and that outside interests, holding some twenty-odd memberships, contribute largely and make up for local delinquency.

The very fact that Bay St. Louis has a chamber of Commerce serves to a purpose inasmuch that it is a substantial advertisement and is useful in one way or another in practically every day of the year.

Splendid service by the active and efficient secretary was noted and the co-operation of officers and the general membership as well. Offered for the new year, armed with new resolutions to continue and pledged to expand its usefulness there should be a bright future for the organization both in the city and county as one combined.

SATURDAY'S ELECTION.

BAY ST. LOUIS voters will go to the polls Saturday to participate in the first Democratic primary election and Oct. 15 in the second, which always seems to follow the first when more than two candidates offer their services for same positions.

Some sixteen hundred registered names have been revised and the poll books show that there has been a very slaughter of delinquents. Many who expect to be eligible will find out otherwise. The managers have applied themselves diligently to their task, painstaking and allowed no name to escape where even the slightest doubt might exist.

A ruling of general interest by the City Democratic Executive Committee is of interest and correct. To the effect that where the names of candidates for commissioners appear two must be voted for. To do otherwise will invalidate the ticket. No "single shot" voting will be allowed.

There is much material offered to the voters, candidates who are willing to serve the public. It will be no trouble to select from the list. It represents well-known citizens and men, if elected will serve fully and well. However, men voted for must be judged by their ability and not by sheer popularity. It has too often been the case where men because of cheap popularity were elected and when in office lacked the essential necessary and proved in the end tremendous failures. This is expensive and our people cannot afford it.

FIVE GOOD SIGNS.

THE five chief indications of improving business during the approaching months, as summarized by Charles Merz in the New York Times, are:

- "1. The seasonal influences which normally tend to increase activity at this time in certain major industries.
- "2. The abrupt turn recently witnessed in the course of commodity prices.
- "3. The need of replacing depleted stocks of manufactured goods.
- "4. The end of a historic chapter in the movement of gold, accompanied by clear evidence that a new chapter is beginning; and
- "5. The belief that conditions abroad are improving, and Europe may resume the role it played in earlier depressions by leading the way to recovery."

WITH THE STATE PRESS.

STATEMENT FROM MR. COLMER.

WILLIAM M. Colmer, Democratic nominee from this district, in a statement to the voters, says: "It has been suggested that I should straddle the fence, but to me the issue is clear as I think it is to most other good Democrats. The State Democratic Executive Committee which is an organ through which the party speaks, called for nominations from districts and declared the district winners the nominees from the state at large.

"I harbor no malice or ill will to any of the gentlemen who see fit to run outside of the party as independents, or whatever else they may be called. But as the nominee of the Democratic Party for Congress from the Sixth Congressional District, I do not propose to bite the hand that feeds me. I shall stand by the party and respectfully urge all other Democrats of my district, and the state as a whole, to do the same."—Biloxi News.

GIVES VIEWS ON SALES TAX.

A MID all the discussion anent the sales tax, Mr. Charles A. Gordon, in a letter to the editor of the Bay St. Louis Echo, points out that the little man who makes $1,000 a year pays about $16 a year sales tax, one and six-tenths per cent of his gross earning, while compared to the man with an income of $10,000 a year, the latter pays about $60, or six-tenths of one per cent of his gross earning. The larger the income, the smaller the per cent of tax.

"Suppose in the State of Mississippi there are 25,000 men who earn $1,000 a year," Mr. Gordon writes. "By the 2 per cent sales tax you cut the buying power of these 25,000 men $400,000. This means that the merchants in Mississippi are losing that annually. It appears to me, after careful study of all phases of the question, that the sales tax is prolonging and increasing the depression."—Biloxi News.

Some of us bought. We are sorry now.

However, at this juncture, Brother Roger recommends that we spend more time in meditation.

TOM MIX, AN EXAMPLE.

SEVERAL years ago it was the writer's privilege to meet Tom Mix in person at the Fox Studio in Hollywood. At that time we learned that Tom Mix was deeply interested in boys and took an active part in Boy Scout Work. We also learned early in his screen career Tom Mix saw to it that in none of his scenes was he ever caught taking an unfair advantage of those with whom he was engaged in fighting. Realizing that he was an example for millions of American youths it was his desire to be a hero, a fighter and a defender of things that were right.

Now, Tom Mix returns to the screen after three years with circuses and announces that he will never

SHADOWS

There's a shadow on our state,
Death has claimed our good and great.
Down in dear old Yazoo town,
Sighs go up and tears flow down.

Stars seem dimmer in the skies;
Death has claimed the brave and wise.
All about the planter's place,
There's a shadow on each face.

Silence holds the stately house;
Feet move softly as a mouse;
Broken hearts are beating there,
Darkies weeping everywhere.

Last of all the lofty line,
Wholly human, half divine,
Noblest Nestor of them all;
Heard and heeded Death's clear call.

There he lies in simple state,
While the mourners watch and wait,
Floral tributes heaped beside;
Flooding in from far and wide.

Wires are vibrant with their words,
Sadness mars the songs of birds;
Statesmen, magnates, men of worth,
Great and small of all the earth
Voice the sorrow that they feel
Even souls with nerves of steel,
Pay their ringing tributes, too,
To the Sage of Old Yazoo.

Statesman, husband, father, friend,
Best of neighbors to the end,
Planter, prophet, scholar, seer,
Brother both to serf and peer.

John Sharp Williams stands sublime;
Super-Man of Modern Time.
Mother Mississippi, keep
Green the grave where he shall sleep.

When the writer met Tom Mix in 1924 it was said his salary then was $11,500 per week, which, of course, included the use of his horse, Tony. He was the highest paid of all movie actors. He has remained youth's idol since, although some of his popularity has waned because of his inactivity on the screen recently.

But, when Tom Mix returns to movie houses of this and other nations he appears again as an example for boys. Many boys will want to be like Tom Mix—to ride and fight and win like Tom Mix does. And they will fight to win in the same manner in which Tom Mix has been fighting to win. If Tom Mix drinks and gambles and takes unfair advantage of others, so will our boys. His choosing of the cleaner way will be followed by these same boys.

Tom Mix may sacrifice many dollars because of his decision to play a clean game, but he will reap a greater compensation in the peace of mind and the satisfaction of having done a service for the future generation because of monetary loss. —Greenville Democrat.

MORNIN'

A Cool Autumn—

Cool, refreshing nights.

Brilliant, hazy, sun-kissed days.

Nature makes her seasons good amid a vari-colored setting.

A hint of winter in the air—

Leaves turning russet—then to gold.

Fields white with cotton and yellow with corn.

Barns filled with sweet, new hay.

Sweet "taters" stored away; molasses in the making.

Fat, elusive "possums, climbing the persimmon trees.

Bob-whites whistling in the sage.

Glorious sunrises at the day's beginning.

Gorgeous sunsets at day's end.

A crackling log fire—an easy chair and a favorite book.

And over all, a round, golden harvest moon that casts benignant benediction.

If these be "melancholy days," then give us more and more and more and more.

Earth paints in glowing colors now—fiery crimsons, flaming scarlets, golden browns.

Nature crowns her she destroys.

Autumn brings both promise and fulfillment—the pledge of summer passed; prophecy of other, better summers still to come.

Take a hike through dales and woods.

Men get sick of man-made panaceas.

We are "fed up" on patent mental breakfast foods.

Mother Nature entices us like An, taens of old, to get in touch with healing earth.

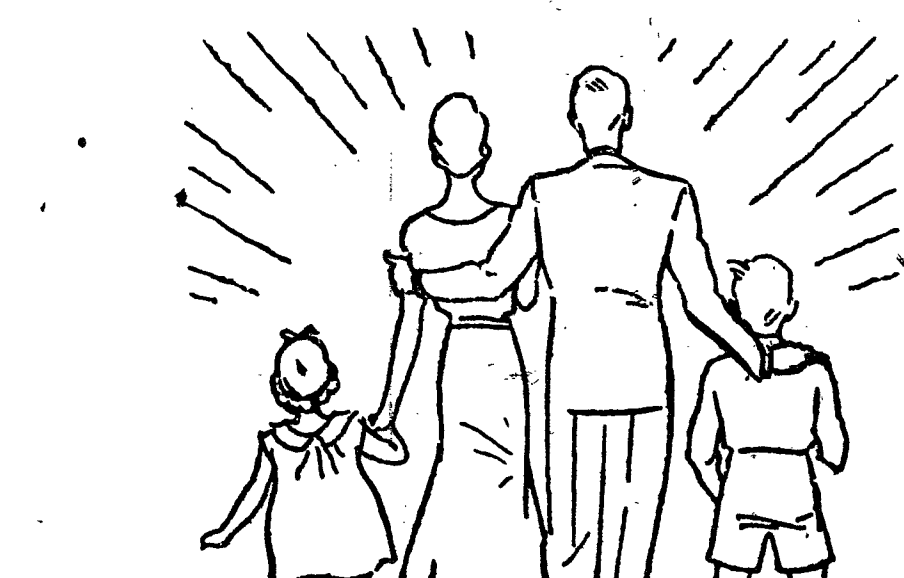

Frailty climbs the hills and regains strength.

Under pristine seasonal grandeur, even the smallest soul expands.

We look, enjoy and marvel at the genius of the Master brush.

And if we but heed the whisper of the falling leaves, we catch the promise.

"Summer will return again."

Better Days Are Coming

NOW that most of us have re-adjusted ourselves mentally and financially to the new order of things, let us face the future with courage, hope and pluck. Speaking solely for itself, this institution proposes to write off the recent past and enter into the immediate future with all the enthusiasm and energy at its command. Better days are coming and we are getting ready for them.

SOIL IMPROVEMENT

WHATEVER has been the fortune or misfortune of the farmers of Hancock County—the men who have been getting their living from the growing and sale of farm crops; this is the time of year to make a careful summing-up or analysis of your program for the coming season.

As county agent I shall be glad to assist in working out your farm program. My connection with the Mississippi State (Agricultural and Mechanical) College, and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, provides an avenue for securing a vast amount of information, such as I am not able to furnish personally.

Before any farmer can hope to make a success as a farmer he must have productive soil; produce high-quality products in order to meet competition, and the yield should be of sufficient quantity to assure profit over production cost.

Mr. Farmer! Do these conditions exist on your farm? Do you have the proper amount of plant food elements in your soil? You do not propose, or even intend to work without food, nor would you expect your mules or horses to plow your fields without feeding them. Isn't it reasonable then, that you should feed your soil in order that it furnish food to produce crops?

Some few men assume the position that since they have been growing crops (such as they are) on certain plots of ground for ten, fifteen or possibly fifty years, feel their past program is sufficient. All right, this is an ideal condition if everyone is satisfied. How many are satisfied? Can we meet the increased tax and other problems with a farm program based on the needs of the farmer fifty years ago, under present day conditions?

Hancock County's future prosperity is logically dependent upon agriculture and livestock. According to 1930 census figures it had a population of 11,415 people, a total of 563 farms, averaging 81.2 acres per farm, but no account was given as to average number of acres in cultivation. However, in studying crop production and crop requirements for the county, we find a shortage of 60,444 bushels of corn, 964,890 pounds of pork, 1,144,545 gallons of milk, 215,851 dozen eggs, and 73,231 gallons syrup or in other words, the above amount would have been shipped in to supply the demand for a balanced ration.

With the argument having proceeded to this point, someone raises the question, what is the advantage of producing these things when we have to sell them below cost? This is just the question. Thanks for your careful attention up to this point. Now let's get back to the object of this argument: SOIL IMPROVEMENT. If your soil was in the highest state of productivity, don't you think you could have made and increased yield? With an increased yield, wouldn't your cost of production have been less per unit? As you increase the yield the profit on products sold increases.

When growers in other states can produce these products and ship them in at heavy expense, it looks as if we have overlooked a good local market by not having given the proper attention toward soil improvement so that we could have produced on a basis that the local market would have been profitable.

Productive soils offer a solution to many farm problems; and winter growing legumes offer the best opportunity to increase the soils productivity without interfering with the general farm crops.

September 20th to October 20th is the period to plan seed of winter growing legumes for soil improvement.

WITH the coming of cooler weather more interest is being taken in planting of seeds for fall and winter gardens.

Plans are also underway for preparation of ground by several for an increased acreage to strawberries for next spring shipments. Growers differ as to time of setting plants. Majority seem to favor November 1st to 15th, and are expecting to have their ground in condition for this period. Others will set earlier, while some will wait later. Applications of commercial fertilizer will vary with the individual, but the general recommendation is to apply 100 pounds of 4 8 4, or 4 12 4 commercial fertilizer to each one thousand plants, or 1400 pounds per acre. Some prefer to apply 800 to 900 pounds in making up the beds, two to three weeks before plants are set, and side-dress with 500 to 600 pounds of 4 8 4 or 4 10 7 just before strawing. Thorough preparation of the soil before plants are set is absolutely essential if good yields or high-quality berries are to be produced.

This thought must be kept in mind. There will be lots of competition. With the closing of many industrial plants during past two years, throwing thousands of men out of the kind of employment for which they have fitted themselves; many of these men in an effort to find gainful occupation have drifted to the farm and are now growing vegetables and strawberries as quick money crops, but with their limited experience will not be able to produce the best quality berries, yet they will be put on the markets and the fact that they are there, will have its influence on pulling down the price of mediocre berries. There are, however, a large number of people who have assured incomes; are not affected by depressions, and will pay good prices for berries of highest quality.

WITHIN the past ten days I have attended three meetings of farmers. One was held at White Cypress and called by Mr. K. G. McCarty, Smith-Hughes Vocational Agricultural Teacher at Sellers Consolidated School for the purpose of discussing the growing of Austrian Peas and Vetches as winter cover crops for soil improvement. Mr. E. E. Lumpkin, Smith-Hughes Voc. Agri. Teacher at Kiln, called a meeting of those interested in growing strawberries and cabbage. The third meeting was held at Logtown for those in that community interested in growing strawberries.

The attendance at these meetings were not large, but there was a genuine interest, which after all is the only thing that counts. No definite decision was reached as to total acreage that will be planted to strawberries in the communities. A general meeting of all growers in the county will be called at Bay St. Louis at an early date.

A fine spirit of cooperation was shown by Mr. N. T. Haas, General merchant at Kiln, Mr. McCarty, Mr. Lumpkin, Mr. J. J. Sudkamp farmer and Mr. Henry Dean, merchant of Logtown, in calling and getting the men out to these meetings.

Bay Girl Scouts Report Busy Month in Many Activities

By Bernice Jacobs, Scribe.
The local girl scout troop has been quite busy the past months. The annex to the Hotel Weston has been loaned for use as a scout house. The girl scouts appreciate Mrs. Bourgeois' kindness in letting them use the house. The meetings are held there every Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 4:30.

The scouts marched as a unit in the P. A. parade held recently, as the troop is sponsored by the Central School P. T. A. The girls all carried American flags and red, white and blue parasols. The large flag at the head of the troop was carried by Alice Vivian Evans, with Lois Wright and Roberta Horlock as color guards. The banner was carried by Anna May Ploue and Mildred Cagle.

The girl scouts have had two short hikes lately. The first was to Sunset Point, and the other was to Nicholson avenue in Waveland. Both were enjoyed very much and several passed fire-building and outdoor cooking tests.

WORK AND PLAY AT S. J. A.

LAST Thursday the children of Mary held their regular weekly meeting. The question of whether there should be four or five committees was the prevailing issue of this meeting. A motion was made and seconded and the objections over-ruled that a fifth committee bearing the title "Literature" should be added.

We now have five committees in all, The Eucharistic Committee, Our Lady's Committee, The Mission Committee, Publicity Committee and the Literature Committee.

The girls whose names were suggested for chairmen of these committees were:
Eucharistic—Yvette Telhiard.
Our Lady's—Delta Lizana.
Mission—Carrie Koenenn.
Publicity—Joyce Wolf.
Literature—Alice Camors.

The duties which would fall to these various committees were explained and at our next meeting the members of each respective committee shall be appointed.

The sodalists were reminded that this is the month of the Holy Rosary, and that since they are Children of Mary they should honor the Blessed Virgin under all her titles, this month as Our Lady of the Rosary. Various questions were explained and debated though not put into the form of motions. At three o'clock the meeting adjourned with a closing prayer.

TWO DREAMS REALIZED.

"Say! Why all the excitement?" asked one Senior of another. "Did the fire alarm ring, or has gold been discovered in the convent?" "You struck it!" the other replied. "The gold rush is on so come on studious, drop that book and let's go dig us a sample." And with that the last two pairs of senior legs went flying down the steps.

The day was Thursday, the time was three after three, and the object was thirteen after one—classing!

The minutes flew into an hour and all that time two dozen and one voices could be heard exclaiming at the same time, while twice that number of eyes and hands examined at the same time but then finally came—"Eureka!"—the big discovery.

The thirteen had found the one ring they had been wanting all their lives and had been searching for, for the last hour and thirteen minutes.

"No, we won't describe it to you. It's a dream! but we'd rather show it to you as we will three weeks from now when it arrives. Our new Senior Class Ring—a dream realized.

THE JUNIORS ALSO THRILLED.

"The agent is here with the pins!" was the joyous news that greeted us last Thursday at the close of school. There was a general rush for the hall downstairs. Then shouts resounded through the place, Oh! Let me see that one!—"This one is beautiful!"—"This is too large!"—"This one too expensive!"—"Let's get this one!"

Finally after much discussion two pins were selected and voted. A lovely white gold pin with black trimmings and old gold letters, received the majority of votes. Our order was given and in three weeks we shall receive our pins.

SENIOR RINGS.

Our rings—they now are ordered. They're most beautiful as you shall see. We're all so happy and enthused, Like children full of glee.

Oh! we shall be so impatient Until our "pride has here arrived. For until our rings have been received Incomplete is our title "dignified."

FELLOW BASKET BALL PLAYER DIES.

The girls at S. J. A. were shocked and distressed over the news of Peggy Anderson's death. Peggy Anderson was a Senior at the Gulfport High School last year and had just entered college this fall. Although we knew Peggy only from meeting her in basketball and tennis games, we consider her death as the loss of one of our pals. Her sportsmanship as a member of the Gulfport team impressed us deeply and her memory shall always linger with us.

Her death was a strange coincidence with that of two other players. Our own Helen Wolfe, who was loved by everyone, and who died about three years ago, while the Biloxi High school lost Gertrude Yousko last spring.

When death touches us so closely it causes us to stop and think and while making us sadder it also incites us to bring to our work and games, sportsmanship of the type displayed by the three girls above mentioned, whom we shall always remember with love and admiration.

RECEPTION OF THE HOLY ANGEL'S SODALITY.

Our Lady of the Gulf Church was the scene of a lovely spectacle last Sunday afternoon when more than a hundred little tots, consisting of both girls and boys marched in procession through the aisles singing a hymn to their Angel Guardians.

These little people had assembled for their yearly reception. After a prayer to the Holy Ghost and an address by the Rev. Father Gmelch, the new candidates thirty in number proceeded to the altar rail where they were invested with a medal and red ribbon which pronounced them members of the Holy Angels Sodality. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was then given and the imposing little reception was at an end.

FIRST DISTRIBUTION OF REPORTS.

For the first time this year the whole Student Body assembled in the gym. The reports for October were distributed by our Pastor, the Rev. Father Gmelch.

We are glad to say that in the majority of cases the reports show a great improvement in grades. It is evident that the pupils of S. J. A. are determined to make this year a good one and there is no doubt in our minds that everyone has the intention of continuing this good work during the remaining eight school months. We hope that each month will show a still greater improvement from now until the 'finis.'

APPEAL INDICATED BY STATE BAR IN BATTLE ON MISS. COAST LAWYER

Transcript of Record Requested by Vice President of Body
—Appeal From Judge Russell's Decision
Apparently to Be Sought.

Indication that the Mississippi State Bar Association, through its authorized committee, would appeal to the state supreme court from the October 1 decree of Chancellor D. M. Russell reinstating Carl Marshall, Mississippi coast lawyer, as a practicing attorney in the courts of the state was disclosed at Gulfport, Tuesday, according to a press report when formal notice was received by T. U. Sisson, chancery court reporter, to supply the state bar committee with a transcript of the record in the hearing on the reinstatement petition.

J. H. Price of Magnolia, vice-president of the State Bar Association and one of the attorneys who actively opposed Marshall's reinstatement at the hearing here last June before Chancellor Russell, gave the notice to Sisson.

Provides for Appeal

Practical assurance that the appeal would be taken was given prior to the decree by Webb Venable, one of the bar counsel opposing reinstatement.

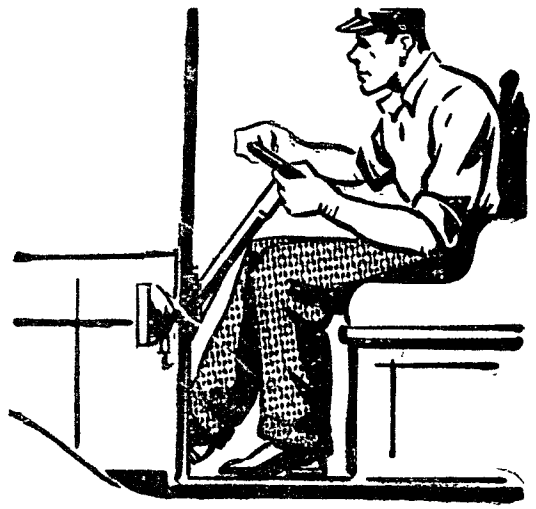

The reinstatement decree provided for an appeal should the state bar committee so desire.

Marshall was disbarred by state supreme court in November of last year for his part in the so-called "scandal" involving payment scandal. Following passage by the 1932 Legislature of the special state bar act he filed petition for reinstatement in chancery court of his home county, Hancock, under the provisions of the new statute and hearing on this petition was had in Gulfport last June before Chancellor Russell.

'Sufficiently Punished'

Nearly 100 witnesses testified and more than 2000 affidavits were introduced at this hearing, all seeking to show that Marshall had been "sufficiently punished for whatever error he might have committed."

Taking the case under advisement, Chancellor Russell filed a lengthy opinion September 1 setting forth his intention of reinstating Marshall and his reasons therefor and followed this with decree of reinstatement on October 1.

Veteran Hurlers

Boxing Ratings

VETERAN hurlers, with experience that comes through years of service, are still doing valuable service on the mound. Jack Quinn, 45-year-old Brooklyn relief worker, can deliver the goods in a pinch. Red Faber, of the White Sox, reputed to be 40; Rixie of the Reds, Grimes of the Cubs, and Vance of Brooklyn, continue to hurl good games.

An interesting exhibition comes from Minneapolis where Rosy Ryan, Jess Petty and Rube Benton, three veterans from the big leagues, pitched their team to a pennant and led their attack in the Junior World Series with Newark.

The Chicago Cubs have decided to divide the "spoils" of the World Series among 23 players and 4 attaches of the team. Rogers Hornby, former manager, who left the team in second place when he retired as manager was ignored by his former team mates. Hornby has written a letter of protest to Commissioner Landis against the action of the Cubs in leaving him out of the money.

He contends that he selected the team, whipped it into shape, and led it through its major difficulties and that he thought he has earned and was fairly entitled to a share in the fund. He asserted that Warnerke, Jurgens and Herman were developed through his efforts and that while his judgment did not accord with that of club officials, the outcome of the pennant race had vindicated his course. Most people, we believe will agree that Hornby should have a share of his club's money.

However, the Rajah drew down his full $40,000 salary this year and ought to be able to stagger through the winter somehow.

Billy Sandow, who dominated the wrestling racket for years and, later, as a promoter managed Lewis and other leading wrestlers, is back in the game again. He has opened a club at Los Angeles. A few years ago Sandow had the whiphand and made quite a few enemies who will do their best to make it hot for him now.

When Gar Wood sent Miss America X over the measured mile on the St. Claire River at a speed of 124.91 statute miles per hour, he took the world's speed boat mark from Kaye Don, who, in Scotland, on July 18, made 119.75 miles per hour. After the race Wood denied that the boat's motors were making their limit and said that it could make faster time.

The National Boxing Association has announced its ratings for 1932 in eight classes and dropped the junior welterweight and junior lightweight class held by Johnnie Jaded and Kid Chocolate, respectively. The champions recognized include:

Heavyweight—Jack Sharkey.
Light Heavyweight—Geo. Nichols.
Middleweight—Marcelle Thil, of France.

Welterweight—Jackie Fields.
Lightweight—Tony Canzoneri.
Featherweight—Tommy Paul.
Bantamweight—Al Brown.
Flyweight—Young Perez.
In grouping the heavyweights, the Commission did not list Primo Carnera or W. L. Stribling, giving the post of "contender" to the following boxers in the order named: Max Schmeling, Max Baer, Stanley Pore-da, Johnny Risko, Mickey Walker, Larry Gains, Ernie Schaaf, Tony Shucco, Isadore Gastanaga and Jack Peterson.

Bay Tigers Triumph Over Pass Christian High Pirates 25-0.

By Ben Hays.
The Bay Hi Tigers lead by diminutive Orest Laurent, swamped the Pass Christian High Pirates, 25-0, here Thursday afternoon. The game was a warm up for the Tigers and gave Coach Phillips a chance to view his entire squad under fire. The first score came late in the initial quarter, after a long steady drive placed the ball in position, and Laurent took it through the line for a touchdown. The try for point-after-touchdown failed.

The second and third touchdowns were made by Earl Ramond and Joe Loiacano, on line plays, after the Tiger line had battered magnificent-ly hold the Pirates both times without a first down after the kickoffs and forcing them to punt.

Orest Laurent intercepted a pass on the invaders 40 yard stripe and raced 39 yards to the one yard line, to curtain the third quarter, and to thrill the spectators. He went over tackle for the last touchdown. David Middleton circled end for the extra point. From then on "Hippo" sparingly sent in the reserves.

The Pirates fought gamely during all quarters and threatened to score once during the last few minutes of play, but were held for downs on the three yard line.

Ramond, Laurent, and the entire line were outstanding.

Score by quarters:

Bay Hi.....6 0 12 7

Pass Hi.....0 0 0 0

The Tigers leave Saturday morning for Pascagoula, where they will play the Pascagoula High School. This should prove a hard fought contest, because the loser will be eliminated in the Class A championship race. Both teams have shown well in their earlier games this season.

The probable lineup for Bay Hi follows:

Milton Moran, L. E.

New plans for the heavyweights followed the victory of Max Schmeling over Mickey Walker. These included a February fight in Miami between Schmeling and W. L. Stribling, who was defeated by the German in Cleveland two years ago. This is scheduled to be something of a warmup for Max, who will be expected to fight again in June against the winner of the Max Baer-Carnera scrap. If Schmeling wins both of these, he would get his third fight with Sharkey.

The Schmeling-Walker fight put an end to Mickey Walker's heavy-weight ambitions and the Irishman will go back to bruising middleweights from now on. Walker took a severe lacing from Schmeling being knocked down three times before his manager, Jack Kearns, refused to let him go into the ninth round. While the little fellow had been able to break even as far as winning rounds was concerned, he was badly shattered by the Schmeling attack and faced possible serious injury if Kearns had permitted the battle to continue.

Walker has a remarkable record. A middleweight, he has spent most of his time tackling heavier and bigger men, doing it in an aggressive manner. There is no letup in a Walker fight. Strange to say, Mickey has little use for old-fashioned training methods. He pays no great attention to training rules and yet seems to be able to go through his battles without any signs of tiring. He is a great deal like the late Harry Greb.

Word from Europe is that the leading tennis experts of France and Great Britain have accepted Ellisworth Vines, Jr., as the best male tennis player in the world. The Associated Press reports the selections of A. W. Myers, a London ten-

THE ECHO'S COOKING CLASS

(For The Sea Coast Echo)

Wheat, corn, oats and rice are the most important cereals today. They rank high in nutritive value and are among the cheapest of energy-producing foods. Breakfast is the main time for cereals but there are many ways of using them in the other meals of the day.

Cereal Ring
½ cup cooked wheat cereal
3 cups clear chicken broth
5 eggs
1-2 teaspoon salt
2 green peppers, chopped fine.
Put boiling chicken broth in double boiler. Slowly add the cereal and salt, stirring until it begins to thicken. Cook for one hour. Put in a mixing bowl. Stir in unbeaten egg yolks, one at a time. Beat thoroughly, add green pepper. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into a greased ring mold. Set the mold in a pan of hot water. Bake in a hot oven for one-half hour. Remove to a large round dish, fill center with creamed fish.

Corn Meal Puff
3 cups boiling milk, salt to taste
¼ cup of yellow corn meal
3 teaspoons butter
4 eggs
Boil the corn meal in the milk for 15 minutes, then add the butter and allow the mixture to cool. Add the beaten egg yolks and fold in the stiffly beaten whites. Pour the batter in a buttered casserole, set the casserole in a pan of hot water and cook in an oven low enough for the water to remain below the boiling point. Serve with maple syrup or with cheese sauce.

Maple Cookies
Crisp in the oven 2 cups of puffed rice, stirring into them 3 tablespoons butter. Cream 2-3 cup of butter with 2-3 cup of brown sugar. Add a beaten egg, 1-3 teaspoon soda, 3-4 cup of flour and ¼ teaspoon maple flavoring. Beat well. Add the 2 cups of puffed rice. Drop by spoonfuls in greased pan. Bake 20 minutes in a moderate oven.

Rice Croquettes
2 cups cooked rice
2-3 cups grated cheese
3-4 teaspoon salt
Few grains cayenne
3 tablespoons milk
1 egg
1 cup dry bread crumbs
Mix rice, salt and milk. Add beaten egg, cheese and cayenne. Shape into small rolls. Beat egg and add 2 tablespoons milk. Dip croquettes in egg and roll in crumbs. Fry in deep fat until a delicate brown. Serve with roast lamb and currant jelly.

LOCAL VETERAN SAYS IN BROADCAST MESSAGE VOTE FOR ROOSEVELT

Says Richest Country In World In Terrible Fix—Hoover Against Paying Bonus—His Attitude Against Veterrans At Washington Recently.

The following address was prepared by our townsman Russell T. Manieri, world war veteran, for broadcasting and general publication and carries considerable food for thought.

The Echo reproduces the address in full, as follows:

From a veteran of the World War to my fellow comrades and citizens of the United States, it is indeed a pleasure for me to have the honor of addressing you in behalf of Franklin D. Roosevelt, the next president of the United States. Our candidate is a born leader, and a man that you and I would be proud to have as the commander-in-chief of this wonderful country; and when I say wonderful, I don't mean as it is under the present administration but after our candidate is elected happy days will come again.

Comrades, perhaps I was a little more fortunate than some of you. If it had not been that I was successful in the U. S. Navy as a boxer, I may not have had the pleasure of calling upon you at this time. I consistently believe that the President to be—Franklin D. Roosevelt would not have given me the personal consideration that he has.

For the benefit of my comrades and friends, I had the honor of winning the heavyweight boxing championship from the entire British Fleet for the American Battle Squadron over seas. Incidentally I received a cablegram from Admiral Sims ordering me to London at once to box the Royal Albert Hall for the United States. The King and many thousands of men and women were over there in 1917 and 1918. We all tried to do everything that was in us for we were all fighting for one great cause. But I am telling you, men and people of this country, that we are fighting for a greater cause than that for which we fought in 1917 and 1918, for the trouble now is here at home. I expect you people of this country understand me. Sure, I am personally sure with Mr. Hoover because I am a World War Veteran, but I am fighting the poor administration in general, for the present condition of this country. To be the richest country in the world, we are in a terrible fix. Suppose this country was broke and we owed 25 billion dollars as a war debt—judging from this present condition, what would it be under circumstances mentioned heretofore.

It means a lot to the people of America to have a real American executive. One who has the interest of the people and his country at heart. Can't you people out there see in that smile, don't each and every one of you know what it means, can't you everyone of you see confidence, loyalty, generosity and fairness in every crack of that victorious smile.

Can't every man and woman in this country judge a real American?

All of the campaign speeches that he has been making are true, and everything that he is telling you people, you can depend on it being the truth. I, as one of you, appeal to you to endorse Franklin D. Roosevelt, and the Democratic party. As an ex-serviceman, I again especially appeal to the veterans of the World War. Men, we still have that spirit, that we had in 1917 and 1918. When called upon, we all went over there as one, for one reason, with one determination to fight for Democracy, and I ask you, as one of you, what did we get? Poverty, starvation, and taxation. Men, the burden was so unbearable on some of us who were less fortunate, that a great number of our veterans became desperate, and marched into Washington with the sole purpose of embarrassing the Honorable Herbert C. Hoover, and the Senators assembled there from all parts of the U. S. These men misconstrued the meaning of the Bonus seekers, and called out the Militia to drive out, kill if necessary, our heroes with these same implements which they won the cause of democracy in 1917 and 1918. If I am not mistaken there were several killed. This was unnecessary. Had Mr. Hoover used just a little diplomacy, such a mishap could have been easily avoided. Comrades, I call that carelessness and a downright shame, for Mr. Hoover to have done a thing like that. These men were nearly desperate. They and their families were hungry, and do any of you to whom I am talking know what it means to be hungry? I hope not.

Comrades, we all know that the United States government owes us our adjusted compensation, or half of it, and I, as well as you, know it is not due until 1945 and 47, so why did the House pass the bill over Mr. Hoover's veto to have cash payment? Isn't it a fact that Mr. Hoover made an open statement, that if the special session would have passed a bill providing the payment of the other half, he would have vetoed it because there was a surplus in the Treasury to cover the amount needed? Why isn't there enough money in the Treasury? Where is the money? If the Treasury officials, and the president do not know why there isn't a surplus, do any of you suppose that other officials even in Europe could tell us where it is?

Again, I say, we are the richest country in the world today, and we are all over-burdened with taxes, and losing our farms and properties. Every individual pays a tax on almost everything he does and eats, yet we are told there is no money. But we are not shown or told why there isn't any money in the Treasury. Why hasn't Mr. Hoover and his present administration made some negotiations in regards to the collecting of some 25 billion dollars which is justly owed to us by the foreign countries as a war debt. If we had this money, or part of it, maybe the veterans would have a chance of collecting some of their money.

Comrades, I am making a general appeal to you from the Pacific to the Atlantic, and from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico. Do not forget Mr. Hoover's attitude toward our comrades in Washington in the very recent past. If you run a con into a hollow tree, you just can't crawl in after him; you have to "make him out." Well, now that most of you men are now at home, you can do some real smoking. I will make a simple suggestion. Why not all of us smoke Mr. Hoover out of the White House in appreciation for his hospitable reception to our comrades at Washington in the past? It is simple and easy. In every little corner of the United States there are some of us; so why not one man in each vicinity organize bands of men and do some real smoking. There are approximately five million World War veterans in the United States, and each and every one of you men can influence from three to five votes. Men, there is power in numbers and we have that. Now, don't forget to go to the polls in your vicinity and endorse Franklin D. Roosevelt and John N. Garner for president and vice president of the United States.

Some years back, I was in Iowa and saw several mule teams plowing a huge field. I noticed an unusual apparatus tied in front of each mule, just out of reach. After drawing closer, I noticed that it was a bag of oats that deceived the mule into walking all day for something that was never intended for him. After we are organized into community bands, don't let some slick Republican leader come along and deceive you into working for something that is not intended for you. Just remember that he is trying the same tactics on you that the Iowa Farmer tried on the mule.

People, I tell you the day is the eighth of this November, 1932, for a new president, Franklin D. Roosevelt, and happy days, are here to stay.

SPORTS AT STANISLAUS

JUNIORS-RIDE ROUGHSHOD OVER WAVELAND TIGERS SCORE 19-0.

Four versatile backs Captain Frank Fagan, Alternate Captain Geo. Gerchow, Dave Derbes and Vivian Gianelloni collaborated today in leading the Stanislaus Juniors to a crushing victory over their opponents from Waveland school. It was a crushing defeat for the visitors as the Stanislaus team was much smaller than they.

The outstanding player of the game was Victor Messa. From his position as tackle he smeared the Waveland ball carrier time after time.

The crowd sat in a drizzle to watch the Junior eleven gathering momentum as it moved along, score in the opening minutes of play and then completely out-class its opponents in the last two periods.

In rolling up this first victory of the season the Junior team established itself as one of the most formidable outfits of their size. In holding Waveland to four first downs its defense proved more than capable.

Derbes substituting for Dufilho at half showed up well. His broken field running was worthy of comment. Frank Fagan scored two touchdowns one of them on a dazzling 25 yard run in the opening period. The other touchdown was made by James Henry a stellar end on the Junior Team.

Waveland threatened but once, and that was the second half when captain W. Bourgeois on an end run got it to the open end and seemed sure of break in the scoring line when he was brought down on the 30 yard line.

HOW ONE WOMAN LOST 10 LBS. IN A WEEK

Mrs. Betty Lueddeke of Dayton writes: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight—I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it."

To take off fat easily, SAFELY and HARMLESSLY—take one half teaspoon of Kruschen in a glass of hot water in the morning before breakfast; go lighter on fatty meats, potatoes, butter, cream and pastries—it is the safe way to lose unsightly fat and one bottle that lasts 4 weeks costs but a trifle. Get it at any drugstore in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the safest way to lose fat—money back.

But be sure and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous and you must safeguard your health.

Point after touchdown, Bourgeois. First downs, Stanislaus 18; Waveland 4. Substitutions—Stanislaus: R. McGrath, J. McGrath, J. Henry, V. Vignes, I. Defelice, W. Carty, G. Hammer, J. Maxwell, H. Bopp, E. Villa. Referee—Ray Kidd.

WITH THE MOVIES AND FILM FOLKS

(For the Sea Coast Echo)

LEE TRACY, who made nine pictures in ten months and has offers from several companies, has determined to take a six month's rest in Europe as soon as he finishes "Phantom Fame."

Warner Brothers says that they have ended all negotiations with James Cagney, red-headed star, who demanded a large salary increase.

"Blonde Venus" as completed is said to be Joseph von Sternberg's idea of the story. Reports of friction between the director and studio officials were not downed and it is said that 400,000 feet of film was shot to get 8,000 feet that appears on the screen.

Universal has filmed a new horror story, "Im-Ho-Ten," with Boris Karloff and dealing with six phases of the world's development.

Paramount will film "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," R-K-O Radio are to film "Little Women" and Fox is making "Tess of the Storm Country."

The success of "Rebecca of Sunny Brook Farm" and "The First Year" is credited with causing something of a rush to secure rights to Gene Stratton Porter's books, "Freckles," "Keeper of the Bees" and "Girl of the Limberlost."

Sylvia Sydney, formerly slated to begin "All for Love," has been put to work on "Madame Butterfly."

Jesse L. Lasky, formerly Paramount production head, who resigned after eighteen years of service, is expected to join the Fox Company and make their "epic" feature. Lasky was recognized as the guiding hand when Paramount dominated the industry some years ago.

Universal plans to feature Gloria Stuart in "Laughter in Hell" by Jim Tully. She was seen prominently in several pictures before having the feminine lead in "The All-American."

Joan Crawford's next vehicle is expected to be "Education of a Princess," now being adapted by Robert E. Sherwood.

Helen Hays has completed "A Farewell to Arms" for Paramount and is on the M-G-M lot for "The White Sister."

Anita Louise will have the main role in Louisa M. Alcott's "Little Women," which will begin production this month.

Richard Dix and Ann Harding have just completed "The Conquerors," which R-K-O expects to compare with "Cimarron."

Dorothy Mackay has met with little success in her effort to return to the screen after serving a prison term arising out of the death of her husband, Ray Raymond. However, she collaborated in writing "Women in Prison," which Warners have purchased for Barbara Stanwyck.

Clara Bow's comeback film, "Call Her Savage" is well into production at Fox.

Columbia Studios, one of the smaller companies which has emerged into recognition as a major producer, has eight pictures underway.

Jack Holt is now at work on "Planchettes Man," and the feminine role is handled by Lillian Miles, a night club singer doing her first screen work.

Adolphe Menjou, who recently completed "The Night Club Lady," will once more interpret the dapper police commissioner in "About the Murder of a Circus Queen."

Leo Corilla and Vivienne Osborne have completed "Men Are Such Fools."

Some 15,000 theater exhibitors are showing Mickey Mouse cartoons and some 172 newspapers run a Mickey Mouse comic strip daily.

These statistics are given on the fourth anniversary of the debut of the cinematic rodent. Incidentally, Mickey has his own studio, said to have cost one-half a million dollars and employs 250 men and women.

Order Levying Reforesta- tion Tax Levy By Board Of Supervisors

The following order from official minutes Board of Supervisors appearing in the last issue of The Echo, reading tax of 5 cents per acre is reproduced here in order to correct a typographical error which should read 3 cents per acre, a difference of 2 cents in favor of land owners.

Coming on for consideration the request of certain citizens of Hancock County to assess and levy a special annual reforestation tax of 3¢ per acre on the timbered and uncultivated lands lying within the herein-after described boundaries, to be collected and disbursed for the year 1932 and annually thereafter as authorized and directed in House Bill 447 of the Regular Session of the Mississippi Legislature, Session of 1932, which territory is described as follows:

Relieves Women's Pains

Here is an example of how Cardui has helped thousands of women: "I was very thin and pale," writes Mrs. T. H. Scott, of Roanoke, Va. "I suffered from weakness and a severe pain in my back. This pain overcame me and I did not feel like doing my work. I did not care to go places, and felt worn, tired, day after day. My mother had taken Cardui, and on seeing my condition she advised me to try it. I have never regretted doing so. I took three bottles and it built me up. I gained in weight, my color was better, and the pain left my back. I am stronger than I have been in some time. Cardui is sold by local druggists."

If Your Doctor Was Your Cook—You Would Never Need Medicine

Physicians and Scientists Now Know that the Body is Composed of Eleven Minerals and Six Vitamins
All of which are Contained in Natural Foods.

Modern, Refined Foods, Improper Cooking and Poorly Balanced Diet Rob the Body of these Essential Elements so Necessary to Health. Science finds New Way to supply these Deficiencies and Rebuild the Body.

Medical science, constantly searching for ways to prolong life, frequently comes forward with startling statements of their findings, but no more astounding announcement has been made in recent years than the statement of an eminent Chemist who now declares that "There is no natural death. All deaths from so-called natural causes are merely the end point of progressive acid saturation." An amazing statement indeed but a warning, that if heeded, should improve the health and well being, increase the joy of living, and prolong the lives of millions of men, women and children who might otherwise drag through a weary life to an untimely end.

ACIDITY KILLS MILLIONS
Health authorities now agree that 91% of all diseases originate in the stomach and are caused by poor cooking, improper diet, and the eating of highly refined foods. Your doctor knows that the 11 essential minerals and all vitamins are contained in foods in their natural state and could be live with you constantly, carefully select and prepare everything you eat, you would never need medicines of any kind. This being impossible, science has been searching for years, trying to compound a formula that would make up for the deficiencies of these vital elements—and at last their efforts have been rewarded.

AMAZING NEW COMPOUND
LEE'S MINERAL COMPOUND, a new and revolutionary formula, actually supplies the system with these vital elements so necessary to health and happiness. It contains the eleven essential minerals in well balanced proportion, together with Vitamins, and is an invaluable aid to nature in the building of blood, bone, nerve and tissue.

PHOSPHORUS—a valuable aid in treatment of nervous exhaustion, neuritis and skin diseases.

POTASSIUM—which has a marked effect upon metabolism and is an essential to vital activity.

SODIUM—which supplies the deficiency of phosphate, and acts as a corrective of constipation.

SULPHUR—an important element in nutrition and an essential to the health of all human organs and tissues.

SILICA—which appears in every healthy human tissue and is an essential element of the body.

VITAMINS without which it is believed the body could neither live nor die.

THE GRAND OLD MAN OF MISSISSIPPI.

When John Sharp Williams breathed his last, A stately spirit proudly passed, The noblest name, sublimest sage, To grace the annals of our age.

In any time, in any land, His record would in splendor stand, And Mississippi bows her head, And weeps for him that he is dead.

His master mind, his stainless soul, Each shining part, the perfect whole, Revealed in him the Super-Man, The goal of God's supremest plan.

We feel forlorn, our hearts bereft, He was the last great Roman left, We blindly grope without a guide, So long on him have we relied.

His words of wisdom lent us light, His gallant courage gave us might, We never faltered when he led; But now, alas, our leader's dead.

In halls of state, he stood the peer Of proudest Solons, year by year, His matchless merit owned by all In every nation, great and small.

He wove into the warp and woof Of purest statesmanship the proof That, while our noble nation stands, Its pattern shall display his hands.

He served his people long and well, For him there was no passing bell, His task completed, he retired, To spend his days as he desired.

As husband, father, neighbor, friend, He was an idol to the end, Like Monticello's sage and seer, A Commoner and Cavalier.

A Southern planter to the last, He wore the graces of the caste, But broad in culture and in mind, He was a friend of all mankind.

The Grand Old Man has said "Good Night," God rest his soul in lands of light, And may his spirit still abide To be our glory and our guide.

OF SOCIAL INTEREST

(By Our Society Editor)

MRS. Fred Herlihy was hostess at her home in Main street Tuesday afternoon at a five-table bridge party. Mrs. Herlihy, charming hostess, entertained her guests throughout the afternoon with unceasing interest and pleasure. Mrs. C. J. Chadwick won the first prize, while Mrs. N. C. Dick, the second and Mrs. Henry Osinich the "cut" prize. The affair was one of the larger affairs of the week.

Many lady friends of Mrs. C. C. Clark gathered at her home at the Methodist Parsonage Friday afternoon and agreeably surprised her with a "miscellaneous shower". Completing the surprise all the more by a more complete detail of arrangement, seasonable party refreshment, previously prepared, accompanied the group and were served. Many thoughtful and attractive gifts were presented.

—No private garden in the city is more attractive and carries more variety of flowering plants than that of Mrs. O. Fayard, Main street. At present many flowers are blooming in full splendor, particularly the dahlia, of which Mrs. Fayard makes a specialty. Such gardens serve as distinct contributions to the "Bay Beautiful."

—Rev. C. C. Clark, pastor of the Bay St. Louis Methodist church, has returned from several days' trip upstate, going to Yazoo City to be at the bedside of Senator John Sharp Williams and remained to attend the funeral. While in Jackson he attended the meeting of the Lions Club as guest of Secretary A. W. Garraway.

—George Boudin has secured the position of resident representative at Bay St. Louis for Maison Blanche, of New Orleans, for truck delivery and has already assumed his new job. The former representative has returned to New Orleans from which city he came originally. Young Boudin is painstaking, efficient and will fill the requirements of the position.

—Willie Del Bondio, resident of Bay St. Louis for many years, was suddenly stricken last Saturday when he gave away to a sudden breakdown and shattered nerves. He grew violent and local authorities were obliged to put him in the city jail for safekeeping and medical treatment. This condition grew worse and he was finally taken away to one of the State's sanitariums for further treatment and care. Mr. Del Bondio is a scion of one of the oldest and better known families of this section for over a period of many years.

MANY ATTEND SHOW OF VAUDEVILLE NUMBERS FOR DESERVING BENEFIT

Large Gathering Viewed Successful Presentation of Program by Local Talent.

A large gathering was noted at the benefit vaudeville program at St. Joseph's Academy Gym Wednesday night, when St. Margaret's Daughters realized quite a neat sum as a result for their Food Fund.

The benefit was well patronized and is gratifying to all concerned and it is also noted by The Echo that the program presented was of that order as to stamp the affair a success in the fullest sense in addition to the financial phase.

It would be hard to particularize so well did each and every one carry out his or her part. It will be seen from the program, herewith presented, there was variety of numbers and that local talent was entirely embraced. The Municipal Band presented several new and attractive numbers.

It's not where you come from but what you can Do!

NOT HERITAGE, but training and ability, are your greatest assets in securing and holding a job. Employers aren't nearly as much interested in where you came from as in what you can do.

The same is true of motor oils. A hot motor isn't affected by what State the crude oil came from, but it is affected by whether or not the motor oil is tough enough to stand up under terrific engine heat, and keep a protective film between the moving parts.

Refining is what gives motor oil its strength and lubricating qualities. . . . "STANDARD" Motor Oil is the result of 50 years' refining experience. It is the best motor oil that brains, experience and organization can produce, or that money can buy. You can depend upon "STANDARD"—always!
